1. The Nationalist plan to trap and annihilate the Communist 4 Column follows:

The Mationalist 195 Division will drive northward to recapture Ta-huang-kou (126-08, 41-58) and then turn southeast to capture Shih-pa-yen-ching (126-18, 41-50). The Communist 9 Brigade of 8 Column are reported near Ta-huang-kou.

The Communist 7 and 8 Brigades of 3 Column are reported as well entrenched at @su-tao-chiang (126-15, 41-46). The Nationalists are avoiding a frontal attack.

The Nationalist 2 Division will drive north from Chi-an (126-10, 41-07) to Kuo-sung (126-15, 41-33) and then turn northeast to Erh-tao-yang-cha (126-29, 41-48).

The Nationalists expect heavy resistance at Pa-tac-kou (126-26, 41-53), but not at Lin-chiang (126-54, 41-42). After the fall of Lin-chiang, the Nationalist Northeast Command Headquarters will leave one division, probably the 195 Division, to guard that city and Tung-hua (125-57, 41-41).

The New 22 Division and the 2 Division will then push north to capture Meng-chiang (126-48, 42-23)
